Greetings from Congresswoman Barbara Lee

Dear Friends,

I send my warmest greetings as you gather to celebrate the legacy of President Barack Obama, and his historic administration. Unfortunately, I was unable to join you for tonight's celebration of all that has been achieved over the past eight years under President Obama's leadership.

President Obama will be remembered as a trailblazer, not only for serving as our nation's first African-American President, but for the emphasis that he placed on improving the lives of so many throughout our nation, and lifting up the least fortunate in our society. His groundbreaking legislative victories, such as the enactment of the Affordable Care Act, his recognition of the rights of the LGBTQ community and same-sex couples, the dramatic investments that his administration made in fostering clean energy and fighting climate change, and the renewed leadership that he brought to the world stage, among so many other examples, all demonstrate his unwavering commitment to the American people.

I am incredibly proud to have had the opportunity to serve alongside President Obama throughout his tenure, and am grateful for his service to our nation. Thank you all for holding tonight's celebration in his honor, and for dedicating yourselves to continuing the work of creating a more just society.

Warmest regards,
